PINCH PIE

Victory Gallop – Romp and Stomp, by Olympio | 2008
Racing or Broodmare Prospect

"She gave me a high gear and responded so well. She ran phenomenal."

JAVIER CASTELLANO, jockey, rode PINCH PIE to a surging victory in her 2012 debut.

Past Performance & Pedigree Analysis

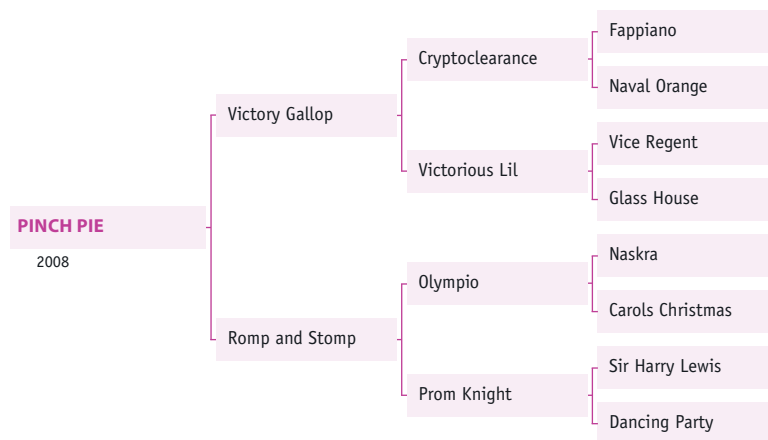

A look at her race record shows that Pinch Pie is a stakes winner and grade one performer, who has graded stakes form on dirt and turf. A glance at her pedigree reveals that she is by a classic winning Champion, and closely related to a dominating Breeders' Cup Classic (gr. I) victor. Taken together those facts make Pinch Pie an extremely attractive prospect as both a runner and a producer.

Winner of the Desert Vixen Stakes on the turf in her three-year-old year, Pinch Pie also produced a fine performance on the dirt to take third in a vintage renewal of the Alabama Stakes (gr. I), behind Royal Delta and It's Tricky. Just a length shy of It's Tricky for second, Pinch Pie defeated the Kentucky Oaks (gr. I) first and second, Plum Pretty and St. John's River, and dual classic winning Champion Inglorious. This year, on the turf, Pinch Pie scored over a mile at Gulfstream Park, while accounting for graded winner Gitchee Goomie, then ran graded and multiple stakes winner Ruthenia to a length in the Violet Stakes (gr.III), with those behind including graded winners Unbridled Humor and Romacaca, and stakes winners My Redbyrd and In the Rough.

Pinch Pie's sire, Victory Gallop, defeated Champion Three-Year-Old Real Quiet in the Belmont Stakes (gr. I) at three, and was himself an Eclipse Award winning Champion at four. Pinch Pie's dam, Romp and Stomp, is already dam of a trio of stakes performers, in Pinch Pie, her sister Rouge Victory, and her three-parts-sister One in a Romp. When looking deeper into Pinch Pie's pedigree, it is clear that she comes by her talent legitimately, as a mating between Pinch Pie's grandsire, Cryptoclearance, and her second dam, Prom Knight, resulted in Pinch Pie's close relative, Volponi. A multiple graded stakes winner, who like Pinch Pie was effective on dirt and turf, Volponi humbled a Breeders' Cup Classic (gr. I) field that included Medaglia d'Oro, War Emblem, Macho Uno, Harlan's Holiday, Came Home, E Dubai, Perfect Drift, Hawk Wing, and Milwaukee Brew, with a devastating six length triumph. In addition to being a half-sister to Volponi, Romp and Stomp is also half-sister to graded stakes performer and stakes producer Fickle Friends, and to stakes placed Prom Party. Her dam, Prom Knight, is out of Dancing Party, a Danzig half-sister to Champion Two-Year-Old and French 2,000 Guineas (gr. I) victor, Recitation.

A versatile grade one performer who proved herself over a classic distance against some of the best of her division, Pinch Pie has a pedigree just one generation removed from one of the most spectacular Breeders' Cup Classic (gr. I) winners of all time, and this background surely gives her the legitimate potential to produce any sort of runner.
