AUTHENTICITY

It would be hard to find a mare with a more consistent record in graded stakes competition in 2013 than Authenticity. In five lifetime graded stakes starts, all consecutively, and all in the current season, Authenticity won twice, and took three seconds, two of them in grade one events.

Authenticity signaled her readiness for major competition with a runaway 17½ lengths victory in a Gulfstream Park allowance test. Making her black-type debut in the Rampart Stakes (gr. III), she closed strongly to take second, 11½ lengths clear of the third. The La Troienne Stakes (gr. II) on the Kentucky Derby (gr. I) undercard saw Authenticity deliver an extremely courageous performance. After battling with On Fire Baby through the early fractions, she was headed by that grade one winning filly in the stretch, but fought back to gain the day in a photo-finish. The time was a new stakes record, and it was nearly five lengths back to the third, the previous year's Kentucky Oaks (gr. I) heroine, Believe You Can, with graded winners Class Included, More Chocolate and Imposing Grace further in arrears.

The Ogden Phipps Handicap (gr. I) saw Authenticity turn in another fine effort, going down by just ½ length to the accomplished Tiz Miz Sue, while accounting for grade one winners Joyful Victory and Believe You Can, and grade two winner Disposable Pleasure. After defying top-weight to take the Shuvee Stakes (gr. III) at Saratoga, Authenticity concluded her career with two more fine efforts in grade one completion. In the Personal Ensign Handicap (gr. I), she came up against Royal Delta, a mare who has proved virtually invincible when in top form, but was a clear second to the two-time champion while again defeating On Fire Baby. Traveling west for the Zenyatta Stakes (gr. I), Authenticity had to give best to another outstanding champion in Beholder, but in claiming second once again demonstrated her superiority over old rivals Joyful Victory and More Chocolate, as well as the grade one winning Include Me Out.

Authenticity is one of the most accomplished racemares to represent her sire, Quiet American. Sire of dual classic winning Champion Real Quiet and Champion Hidden Lake among his more than 50 stakes winners, Quiet American is now a highly sought after broodmare sire, his daughters producing such as Horse of the Year Saint Liam, champion and classic winner Bernardini, and grade one winners Whywhywhy, Cherry Mix, Mentality and Quierido Machito.

Authenticity's dam, Court of Appeal, is by another excellent sire and broodmare sire Deputy Minister. She is out of Appealing Missy, a stakes winner in France, and winner of three stakes events, including the California Jockey Club Handicap (gr. III) and Buena Vista Handicap (gr. III), and runner-up in the Santa Ana Handicap (gr. I). In addition to appearing as granddam of Authenticity, Appealing Miss is also dam of stakes placed Appealing Kris, and granddam of the Top Flight Handicap (gr. II) captress Rahy's Appeal, and is herself half-sister to the dam of Redaspen, who took the La Prevoyante Handicap (gr. II).

A stakes record-setting multiple graded stakes winner, and multiple grade one winner who was never out of the first two in graded stakes competition, Authenticity is by an outstanding broodmare sire, from a family that boasts graded stakes production under the first three dams, thus owning all the credentials for an exciting career as a broodmare.
