WONDERMENT

Wonderment is a dominating graded stakes winner who has won black-type events at two and three.

At two, Wonderment went two-for-two, defeating subsequent three time stakes winner Frosty Margarita to score on her debut, the running off to take the six furlong Lynbrook Stakes on dirt at Belmont Park by $6\frac{3}{4}$ lengths.

At three, Wonderment demonstrated that she could carry her speed, and was also surface versatile, leading throughout to take the one mile Bourbonette Oaks (gr. III) on an all-weather track by $3\frac{3}{4}$ lengths. On her most recent outing, Wonderment was beaten just $\frac{3}{4}$ length in the Dogwood Stakes at Churchill Downs.

Wonderment's dam, the Storm Cat granddaughter A Wonder She Is, has a two-year-old filly by Twirling Candy. She also has a yearling and weanling to run, and is bred to Cairo Prince. A Wonder She Is is a granddaughter of stakes placed Video Babe, an excellent tap-root mare, who is dam of multiple grade one winner Videogenic, and ancestress of the King's Bishop Stakes (gr. I) victor Valid Vide; graded winners Street Babe, and Richwoman; and stakes winners Only You Babe, Fernandinho, A Shin Duck Man, Infinite Resource, Wild Babe, Bluegrass Sara, Eishin Tsurugizan, Video Air, Richbabe and Busterblock.

Wonderment, who has winning form in graded stakes company, and was runner-up in an open stakes on her last start, is a New York-bred and sired filly, opening up numerous racing opportunities. As a graded stakes winner from an excellent female family, she also has clear appeal as a broodmare prospect.
