CHATTERTOWN

The dam of one of the top three-year-old colts of 2016, Chattertown is also three-quarters sister to a current grade one winner from a very live family.

With her second foal, Chattertown is dam of Laoban, who made every yard of the running when defeating the Belmont Stakes (gr. I) first and second Creator and Destin, the multiple graded stakes winner Mohaymen, and stakes winner Governor Malibu, to take the Jim Dandy Stakes (gr. II).

Herself stakes placed, when second in the Dearly Precious Stakes, Chattertown is a daughter of Champion Sprinter, and outstanding sire, Speightstown. She is a sister to the stakes winning That's How I Roll, and half-sister to stakes winner Obruchev, and to graded placed Bluegrass Chatter.

Chattertown's dam, Chatter Chatter is a two-year-old stakes winner. She is a sister to stakes placed Chit Chatter the dam of I'm a Chatterbox, an Eclipse Award nominee who took the Cotillion Stakes (gr. I), Fair Grounds Oaks (gr. II) and Rachel Alexandra Stakes (gr. III), and was three times grade one placed last year at three, and is winner of the Delaware Handicap (gr. I) this year at four. I'm A Chatterbox is by Speightstown's son, Munnings, and therefore three-quarters related to Chattertown.

The second dam of Chattertown, Bedroom Chatter, is a sister to Bedroom Blues, a three-time stakes winner who was also multiple graded stakes placed, and who is second dam of graded stakes winner Commander.

In addition to Laoban – a son of Uncle Mo – Chattertown is also dam of a yearling filly by Scat Daddy, and a Pioneer of the Nile colt foal. She is offered in foal to Empire Maker, the sire of such as the great mare Royal Delta; classic performers and exciting young sires Pioneer of the Nile and Bodemeister; and other grade one winners Country Star, Mushka, Acoma, Icon Project, Grace Hall, In Lingerie, Emollient and Last Full Measure.
