

DARING KATHY

A prolific and versatile graded stakes winner, Daring Kathy has black-type form from five to nine furlongs.

Daring Kathy earned graded black-type at three in the nine furlong My Charmer Handicap (gr. III), in which she led throughout. At this point she was already an accomplished black-type performer, having captured the 8½ furlong Honey Ryder Stakes by 3¾ lengths; the 8½ furlong Starfish Bay Stakes by 5½ lengths; and the one mile Cellars Shiraz Stakes, leading throughout to score by 3¾ lengths. Subsequently she added a triumph over grade one winner Photo Call and graded scorer Marbre Rose in the Perfect Sting Stakes; and this term, the one mile Soaring Softly Stakes, in which she again led from wire-to-wire to for a 5¼ lengths victory.

Daring Kathy has also placed in five other stakes. For a mare that was already graded winner at nine furlongs, she showed remarkable pace to miss by just a neck in the five furlong Bob Umphrey Turf Sprint, dueling through fractions of :21.93 and :43.83 for a winning time of :55.38, and also taking second in the five furlong Bonita Stakes won in a blistering : 55.04. Daring Kathy also took third in the Lake George Stakes (gr. II) at Saratoga and third in the Ontario Colleen Stakes (gr. III).

Daring Kathy is by the grade one winning sprinter, Wildcat Heir, also sire of grade one winners Wild Due and Heir Kitty, and other graded stakes winners Vexor, Rainbow Heir, Derwin's Star, Wildcat Marie, and Richiegirlgonewild.

Daring Kathy is a half-sister to graded stakes placed Zeb. Her dam, Dare to Mambo, is a three-quarters sister to the dam of multiple stakes winner Lovely Syn. The granddam, Ginny Dare, is a multiple graded stakes placed sister to the prolific stakes scorer Lykatill Hill, winner of no less than 13 black-type events, including the Del Mar Breeders' Cup Handicap (gr. II), William P. Kyne Handicap (gr. III), and California Juvenile Stakes (gr. III). Ginny Dare is also half-sister to Classic Account, a multiple graded stakes winner. Ginny Dare's dam, Seven Arts, is out Seven Locks, a three-quarters sister to graded stakes winner and classic sire, Key to the Kingdom, and half-sister to Eclipse Award winner Champion Fort Marcy, Eclipse Award winning Champion and major sire Key to the Mint, and grade one winner Key to Content.
