GEM GEM

A daughter of Tapit – the dominant sire of his era – Gem Gem is a winning sister to a grade one winner from a prolific family, and is offered in foal to the hottest young sire in the world.

Gem Gem is a full sister to Careless Jewel, one of Tapit's most outstanding daughters, and winner of the Alabama Stakes (gr. I), Delaware Oaks (gr. I) and Cotillion Stakes.

Her dam, Sweet And Careless, is a half-sister to the versatile and talented Subordination, a top-class runner on both dirt and turf, winning the Hollywood Derby (gr. I), Eddie Read Handicap (gr. I), Belmont Breeders' Cup Handicap (gr. II), Jamiaca Handicap (gr. II), Brooklyn Handicap (gr. II), Canadian Turf Handicap (gr. II) and two other graded stakes. In addition, Sweet And Careless is also half-sister to stakes winning and graded placed Domination, and to the dam of stakes winner Tough Issie.

The second dam, Not So Careless, is half-sister to Fabulous Notion, winner of the Santa Susana Stakes (gr. I) and Linda Vista Handicap (gr. III), and dam of grade one winner Fabulously Fast, as well as being ancestress of five other stakes winners, including graded scorer Decelerator. Not So Careless is also half-sister to Cacoethes, a classic placed group winner in England, and also successful in the Turf Classic (gr. I) in the U.S.; to stakes winner Margaret Booth, the granddam of graded stakes winner Lucky J. H.; to Careless Virgin, the granddam of Champion Fiji and group winner Capri, and third dam of Blue Grass Stakes (gr. I) winner Java's War.

Gem Gem is offered in foal to Uncle Mo, a remarkable young sire who may well be the heir to Tapit's throne. The Champion Two-Year-Old of his crop, Uncle Mo has made an astonishing start to his stud career with a world-record breaking 19 first crop stakes winners. Eleven of these are graded, and they include the Champion Two-Year-Old and Kentucky Derby (gr. I) winner Nyquist, and other grade one scorers Gomo and Outwork.
