

HIGH CHANT

A 100% winner to runner producer who is dam of two stakes winners, High Chant is offered in foal to a champion sire, and carrying a sibling to her two stakes winners.

High Chant is dam of five winners from her first five foals. They are headed by Csaba, an earner of over $600,000, whose successes included the Hal's Hope Stakes (gr. III), two runnings of the Fred W. Hooper Stakes (gr. III), and six other black-type events. High Chant is also dam of Kitten's Queen, a stakes winner who was beaten just a nose and a neck in the Diana Stakes (gr. I).

High Chant is out of Highfalutin, a three-quarters sister to grade one winner Pool Land, and herself a stakes winner and second in the Sabin Handicap (gr. III) and Sixty Sails Handicap (gr. III). High Chant's granddam, stakes placed Constant Change, is half-sister to the brilliant filly Very Subtle, winner of the Breeders' Cup Sprint (gr. I), and dam of stakes winner Dianehill; granddam of graded stakes winners Splash Point and Subtle Aly; and third dam of 2016 grade stakes winning and grade one placed performer, Subtle Indian.

Constant Change is also half-sister to stake winner Schemative, the dam of stakes winner Remember Ike, and granddam of Crafty Schemer, as well as to the dams or granddams of grade one winner Pool Land and graded stakes winners Broad Dynamite, Voice of Destiny and Actin Good.

High Chant is offered in foal to Kitten's Joy, the sire of her two stakes winners. A Champion racehorse, and captor of a Leading Sire title, Kitten's Joy is sire of Big Blue Kitten; Stephanie's Kitten, successful in the Breeder's Cup Filly and Mare Turf (gr. I); Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint (gr. I) scorer Bobby's Kitten; Hawkbill, a group one winner who is one of Europe's top three-year-olds in 2016; Divisidero, winner of the 2016 Turf Classic (gr. I); and grade one winners Admiral Kitten, Chiropractor, Kitten's Dumplings, and Real Solution. High Chant also has a three-year-old, a two-year-old, and a yearling by Kitten's Joy.
