COLORFUL CHARADES

In just two starts, Colorful Charades is a Saratoga maiden special weight winner and grade one placed performer. By a brilliant World Champion, she is out of a multiple stakes winning mare.

On her debut, Colorful Charades led throughout to score over 6½ furlongs at Saratoga. Returning in the one mile Frizette Stakes (gr. I), Colorful Charades took third to Yellow Agate and Libby's Tail, ahead of the Adirondack Stakes (gr. II) victress Nonna Mela.

Colorful Charades is a daughter of the sensational Discreet Cat. World Champion Three-Year-Old of his crop, Discreet Cat won the Cigar Mile (gr. I) by ¾ lengths, while equaling the track-record; the Jerome Handicap (gr. II) by 10¼ lengths; and the UAE Derby (gr. II) by six lengths, becoming the only horse ever to win a race against Horse of the Year and twice world highweight, Invador. Discreet Cat is sire of such as the multiple grade one winning sprinter Dads Caps; grade one winning juvenile Secret Compass; and Discreet Marq, a three-time graded stakes winner who has won or placed in seven grade one events; as well as graded winners Discreet Dancer, Mamma Kimbo, Sage Valley, Air Khalifa, Debt Ceiling, and Out of Bounds.

Laila's Punch, the dam of Colorful Charades, is a multiple sprint stakes winner who took the Smart Halo Stakes and the Marshua Stakes, which she captured by six lengths. She also has a yearling sister to Colorful Charades to run in 2017.

A sister to stakes placed two-year-old Travelin Leroy, Laila's Punch is out of Morning Tease, a sister to Bam Bam Bull, a 7¼ lengths winner of Half Moon Stakes. In turn, Morning Tease and Bam Bam Bull are out of Bad Pussycat, a mare with a fascinating pedigree. By a Native Dancer line stallion, Bad Pussycat has a granddam who is by a son of Polynesian, the sire of Native Dancer, and is from Native Dancer's own female line.

Already an impressive winner and a grade one performer in two starts at two, Colorful Charades is by a horse who was a World Champion at three and whose offspring frequently excel at three and up, and out of a mare who was a multiple stakes winner at three, giving her clear potential to build on the exciting start to her career.
