GRAND GLORY

By Leading Sire and fast-rising broodmare sire Distorted Humor, out of a multiple stakes winner and grade one performer, Grand Glory is off to a tremendous start at stud with two graded stakes performers with her first two foals. She is offered carrying a sibling to the graded stakes winner.

Grand Glory's sire Distorted Humor has been one of the most important sires of his era. Earner of a Leading Sire crown, he is responsible for 134 stakes winners, 16 grade one winners, and 11 millionaires. Sire of the winners of all three legs of the Triple Crown, he has been represented by Classic winners and Champions in six different countries and on four continents. Distorted Humor is now developing into an extremely important broodmare sire. His daughters have already produced more than 50 stakes winners, 26 graded, among them the spectacular Travers Stakes (gr. I) hero Arrogate; 2016 juvenile star Practical Joke; multiple grade one winner Constitution; and other grade one winners Molly Morgan, Book Review, Moanin, Humor Acido, and Catch the Cocktail.

Grand Glory is out of Royally Chosen, a daughter of In Excess; that sire is the sire of Indian Charlie and grandsire of Uncle Mo. An earner of almost $600,000, Grand Glory captured the California Cup Matron Stakes, B. Thoughtful Stakes, and Cat's Cradle Stakes, and was multiple graded stakes placed, including when second in the La Brea Stakes (gr. I) and Bayakoa Handicap (gr. II). Grand Glory's second dam, Her Royalty, was also a very talented runner, defeating Champion North Sider to capture the Santa Monica Handicap (gr. III).

Grand Glory's first foal is the consistent and classy Gloryzapper. To date, Gloryzapper has made seven of her eight starts on the main track. First or second in every one of those starts, she made her first start in graded stakes on dirt in the L.A. Woman Stakes (gr. III), on October 9 this year, and prevailed in determined fashion over grade one performer Wild At Heart, with grade one winner Juno among those behind.

Grand Glory's second foal, a filly by Macho Uno named Banree, was a winner on her debut at two, and took second to Off the Tracks in the Schuylerville Stakes (gr. III), and third, beaten just a ½ length and ¾ length, in the Tempted Stakes (gr. III).
