

LAND OVER SEA

A Classic-placed graded stakes winner, Land Over Sea has been amongst the best of her crop at both two and three.

Land Over Sea won or placed eight times in her first nine starts, seven of those races coming in graded stakes events, four at grade one level. Winner of a Del Mar maiden special weight on her second start at two, Land Over Sea went on to establish herself as a leading juvenile filly taking second in the Chandelier Stakes (gr. I) and third in the Del Mar Debutante Stakes (gr. I), both times behind Champion Two-Year-Old Filly Songbird. In the Chandelier Stakes (gr. I), Land Over Sea finished nearly ten lengths clear of the field, ahead of stakes winner Right There and Vieja Luna. In the Del Mar Debutante Stakes (gr. I), she had 4¾ lengths to spare over the next horse with those behind her including graded stakes winner Stays in Vegas and stakes winners Right There, Surfside Tiara, and Comes to Mischief.

At three, Land Over Sea gained a graded win when romping in 4½ lengths clear in the Fair Grounds Oaks (gr. II) and followed up with an excellent second in the Kentucky Oaks (gr. I), while defeating grade one winners Rachel's Valentina, Paola Queen, and Weep No More, and grade two scorers Lewis Bay, Go Maggie Go, Mokat, and Venus Valentine. She also defeated all but the magnificent Songbird in the Las Virgenes Stakes (gr. II) and Santa Ysabel Stakes (gr. III).

Land Over Sea is by the hugely talented Bellamy Road, winner of the Wood Memorial Stakes (gr. I) by more than 17 lengths, equaling the track-record and running a 120 Beyer Speed Figure. Bellamy Road is also sire of grade one winner Toby's Corner and other graded winners Position Limit, Sisterly Love, All Squared Away, Victoria's Wildcat, and Georgie's Angel.

Land Over Sea's dam, Belle Watling, is also dam of the multiple graded stakes placed War Story. She has a filly foal by Curlin and is bred to Medaglia d'Oro. A daughter of Pulpit, Belle Watling, is a three-quarters sister to Essence of Dubai, a multiple graded stakes winner of over $2,000,000. She is also half-sister to Yoursmineours, a multiple stakes winner who is dam of the Arlington-Washington Futurity (gr. III) scorer Shared Property and of stakes winner Whiskey Romeo. In addition, Belle Watling's dam, a daughter of stakes winning and
