LAVENDER CHRISSIE

A stakes winning daughter of the tremendously successful Scat Daddy, Lavender Chrissie is half-sister to three other stakes horses.

Lavender Chrissie was an impressive debutante winner at Churchill Downs at two, scoring by 5½ lengths. In allowance company she scored at Gulfstream Park by five lengths, and defeated graded stakes winner Salama and stakes winner Ciaran's Prize to score over nine furlongs at Keeneland. Lavender Chrissie earned black-type laurels by drawing off to take the $315,000 Zia Park Oaks by three lengths from graded stakes winner Calamity Kate.

Lavender Chrissie is a daughter of the Champagne Stakes (gr. I) and Florida Derby (gr. I) captor, Scat Daddy. The Leading Freshman Sire of his crop, Scat Daddy rapidly established himself as a very important international sire. To date he is the sire of 75 stakes winners, and 46 graded stakes winners, among them group one winners No Nay Never – the fastest European two-year-old of his generation – Carravagio and Lady Aurelia – two of the fastest juveniles in Europe in 2016 – and U.S. grade one winners Lady of Shamrock, Dacita, Celestine, Harmonize and Nickname.

Lavender Chrissie is half-sister to the Victory Ride Stakes (gr. III) scorer Baby Jay, to stakes winning and grade one placed Laureate Conductor, and to stakes placed Que Posse. Her dam, Lavender Baby, an eight-time winner, is a daughter of Rubiano, also the broodmare sire of War Front. Lavender Baby is out of Mighty Milk, a half-sister to graded stakes winning and grade one placed Hot Brush, and to Blazing Hot, who took the Summer Stakes, a Canadian grade one event, and is granddam of millionaire and Super Derby (gr. II) victor Going Ballistic, and to Silverette, a three-time stakes winner.

The third dam, Hot Milk, won the Astoria Stakes and Colleen Stakes at two, and was grade two placed. This is the famous L'Amour Toujours family that also produced grade one winners Dream Supreme, Spinning Round and Majestic Warrior, as well as millionaires She's All In and Chindi.
