LIGHT THE CITY

A two-year-old stakes winner who came within a ½ length of a grade one victory, Light the City is offered carrying her first foal, a member of the first crop of American Pharoah.

A winner on her debut, the precocious Light the City won the Anoakia Stakes by 2½ lengths from subsequent grade two winner Seduire on her second start. At three, Light the City fell just a ½ length shy of catching Callback for the win in the Las Virgenes Stakes (gr. I), defeating stakes winners Achiever's Legacy, Lutine Belle and Maybellene. Light the City also claimed second in the Santa Ysabel Stakes (gr. III), behind Champion Stellar Wind, ahead of graded winner Rainha Da Bateria and stake winners Achiever's Legacy and Enchanting Lady, and third in the Desi Arnez Stakes.

Light the City is a daughter of Street Sense, Champion Two-Year-Old and the first horse to capture both the Breeders' Cup Juvenile (gr. I) and Kentucky Derby (gr. I). Street Sense is already sire of nearly 50 stakes winners, including grade one winners Sweet Reason, Hallowed Crown, Wedding Toast, Aubby K, Politeness, Callback and Street Fancy. Note that he is a particularly good sire of fillies, something that frequently marks a horse who goes on to excel as a broodmare sire.

Light the City is out of A.P. Indy's winning daughter, Light From Above, a half-sister to graded stakes winner Strategic Partner, stakes winning and graded placed Richies Party Girl and graded placed Victory Light. The granddam, Very Special Light, won the Gr. 3 Vineland Handicap, and is half-sister to Senora Anne, the dam of stakes winner Senor Amigo; to Lady for Two, the dam of stakes winner My True Lady, and granddam of Two Step Salsa, successful in the Godolphin Mile (gr. II), Lazaro Barrera Memorial Stakes (gr. III) and Affirmed Handicap (gr. III), and stakes winner Kingofthebluegrass; and to Senora, granddam of stakes winner Top Commander.

Light the City's first foal will be a son or daughter of the remarkable American Pharoah, a champion at two and three; the first Triple Crown winner in 37 years; and the only horse to capture the Triple Crown and Breeders' Cup Classic (gr. I).
