

MRS MCDOUGAL

A horse in form, Mrs McDougal is a multiple grade stakes winner who produced the most impressive performance of her career on her most recent start. A daughter of Medaglia d'Oro, she is also out of a young of a multiple stakes winning mare.

A $450,000 yearling, Mrs McDougal, opened her career with a three lengths debut victory. Her three-year-old career also saw her take the Lake George Stakes (gr. II) at Saratoga, defeating grade winner Feathered and stakes winners Cara Marie, Partisan Politics, Mississippi Delta, and Sivoliere, and also score runaway 7½ lengths allowance win; take third in the Valley View Stakes (gr. III); and finish just 2¾ lengths shy of the winner in the American Oaks (gr. I).

Mrs McDougal began 2016 with a tally over grade two winner Strike Charmer in the Plenty of Grace Stakes, and took third in the Just A Game Stakes (gr. I), ahead of Champion Lexie Lou, and graded winners Lady Lara, Faufiler, Prize Exhibit, Rainha Da Bateria, and My Miss Sopia. On September 24, Mrs McDougal gained her second graded stakes triumph, dominating the Noble Lassie Stakes (gr. III) from wire-to-wire leaving stakes winners Zindaya, My Sweet Girl, Akatea, and Mah Jong Maddness in her wake.

Mrs McDougal is by the exceptional international sire Medaglia d'Oro, who has been represented champions on three continents, including superstars Rachel Alexandra and Songbird, and 11 other grade/group one winners, among them Passion For Gold and Vancouver – juvenile champions in Europe and Australia respectively – as well as Violence, Mshawish, Plum Pretty and Gabby's Golden Gal.

Mrs McDougal's dam Distorted Passion was an accomplished racemare, taking the Foil Stakes, Correction Stakes, and Interbrough Handicap – all while racing New York – and was also grade two placed. Distorted Passion is by Distorted Humor, a son of Forty Niner, which means that Mrs McDougal is bred on a version of the cross that produced both Rachel Alexandra and Songbird. Distorted Passion has a Giant's Causeway two-year-old that was a $600,000 yearling, a Medaglia d'Oro yearling that realized $750,000 this September, a filly foal by Pioneerof the Nile, and is bred back to Medaglia d'Oro. The second dam, Arianna's Passion, is a stakes winning sister to Warbling, winner of the Inside Information Stakes (gr. II) and second in the Ballerina Stakes (gr. I) and Princess Rooney Handicap (gr. I).

A dominant graded stakes winner on her most recent outing and a grade one contender, Mrs McDougal has obvious potential to add to her already illustrious record. As a daughter of an exceptional filly sire, out of a stakes winning mare, with several well-bred siblings to come, the upside as a broodmare is equally obvious.
