

PAID UP SUBSCRIBER

A current grade two winner and grade one performer, Paid Up Subscriber is by an outstanding sire, from a family that consistently produces graded stakes winners.

Last year, Paid Up Subscriber was decisive maiden winner on her second start, and followed that up by defeating sprint stakes winner Clothes Fall Off over six furlongs in a Saratoga Allowance race. This term, Paid Up Subscriber has amply demonstrated that she can carry that speed a Classic distance. She gained a graded triumph when storming home three lengths clear in the nine furlong Fleur de Lis Handicap (gr. II) while defeating Champion Untapable and graded stakes winners Brooklynsway, Enganglee, and Ahh Chocolate. Despite being knocked off stride at the break by the winner, Paid up Subscriber also claimed second to I'm A Chatterbox in the ten furlong Delaware Handicap (gr. I), finishing 4¼ lengths clear of the third, graded stakes winner Penwith.

Paid Up Subscriber is by the exceptional racehorse and sire, Candy Ride. An undefeated Champion, Candy Ride is sire of 57 stakes winners, and 27 graded winners, headed by such as Champion Shared Belief, grade one winners Sidney's Candy, Twirling Candy, Evita Argentina, Misremembered, Capt. Candyman Can, El Brujo, and Home Sweet Aspen, and $2,000,000 earner Gun Runner.

Paid Up Subscriber is out of Street Cry's stakes-placed daughter, Shriek, the dam of two other multiple winners with her two previous foals. She also has a three-year-old colt by Arch, a two-year-old colt by Mineshaft, and a yearling filly by Scat Daddy.

Shriek is a half-sister to Stanely Park, successful in the San Luis Rey Handicap (gr. II) and Bay Meadows Derby (gr. III) to stakes winning and graded placed Turf Melody, and to the dam of the LA Woman Stakes (gr. III) scorer Top Kisser. Shriek's dam Tricky Bird is a half-sister to stakes winner Tricky Six and to the dam of graded stakes winner Mo Cuishle. Tricky Squaw, the granddam of Shriek, won the Affectionately Handicap (gr. III) and Next Move Handicap, and took second in the Ladies Handicap (gr. I). She is out of multiple stakes winner Black Apache, also the granddam of grade one winner Dreamy Mimi.

A current graded two winner and grade one performer, Paid Up Subscriber is a rare filly with the speed to win sprinting against stakes class opposition and the ability to carry that speed ten furlongs in grade one company. She is by an undefeated stallion who is a consistent sire
