

VAULCLUSE

Vaulcluse is a unique offering. An undefeated, track-record breaking stakes winner by A.P. Indy, Vaulcluse is dam of a champion and 2016 grade one winner with her first foal.

A stallion who helped shape the modern American thoroughbred, A.P. Indy sired over 150 stakes winners, including Eclipse Award Champions Bernardini, Mineshaft, Rags To Riches, Tempera, Pulpit – sire of Tapit, Music Note, Secret Satus, Sweet Symphony, Jilbaam, Take Charge Indy, and Honor Code. A.P. Indy is also broodmare sire of 150 stakes winners including Champions Royal Delta and Wait a While, as well as Super Saver, Plum Pretty, Artemis Agrotera, A.P. Indian, Moreno, Morning Line, and Bluegrass Cat.

Vaulcluse is out of Betty's Pet, a sister to the Laurel Futurity (gr. III) winner and Remsen Stakes (gr. II) second Millions. Betty's Pet is also half-sister to Star of Paris, the dam of Elusive City, Champion Two-Year-Old and Prix Morny (gr. I) winner, and stakes winner Parisian Affair, and granddam of stakes winner Crimson China.

The granddam of Vaulcluse is the three-time stakes winner Liturgism, a half-sister to Coup de Fusil, winner of the John A. Morris Handicap (gr. I), Delaware Handicap (gr. I), and Ruffian Handicap (gr. I) and dam of multiple stakes winner Derivative.

As a racehorse, Vaulcluse was undefeated in three starts at two and three, including a track-record breaking win in the Suncoast Stakes.

As a broodmare, Vaulcluse is off to an outstanding start. Vaulcluse's first foal is Lukes Alley, Sovereign Award winning Champion Older Horse in Canada, and winner in 2016 of the Gulfstream Park Turf Handicap (gr. I). Vaulcluse is also dam of Wanstead Gardens, a current multiple allowance winner who ran a Beyer Speedfigure of 99 when beaten just 1½ lengths in the Del Mar Handicap (gr. II) on his most recent start; of maiden special weight and allowance winner Dottins Alley; and of Barahona, a 2016 three-year-old who was a six lengths winner of a Churchill Downs maiden special weight on his most recent start. Vaulcluse is also dam of a 2015 colt by More Than Ready – a brother to the promising Barahona – and a 2016 filly by Curlin.

It is likely that there will be few, if any, young Champion and grade one-producing daughters of A.P. Indy on the market in years to come, and this makes Vaulcluse and opportunity not to be missed.
