WAVELL AVENUE

North American racing offers no greater test of speed for a distaffer on the dirt than the Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint (gr. I). Wavell Avenue not only won that race in dramatic style, but also defeated a field of remarkable depth.

Well off the pace in the early stages, Wavell Avenue shook loose of a chasing pack, and in the words of the official Breeders' Cup web-site "Seeming to fly by her competitors..." hit the front in time to score by daylight from the runner-up, that year's Eclipse Award winning Champion Sprint Filly or Mare, La Verdad. Behind Wavell Avenue and La Verdad came a stellar cast of distaff sprinters, among them grade one winners Taris, Cavorting, Judy the Beauty, Artemis Agrotera and Dame Dorothy, and graded scorers Stonetastic, Fioretti Merry Meadow, Sweet Whiskey and Super Majesty.

Wavell Avenue is also winner of this year's Shine Again Stakes, which she took in a swift 1:21.83. In addition, despite stumbling at the start, she came within a ½ length of catching La Verdad in the Gallant Bloom Handicap (gr. II), a race run in 0.7 seconds outside the track-record. Wavell Avenue has also taken second in this year's Bed o' Roses Handicap (gr. I), and third to Sheer Drama and Stopchargingmaria in the Madison Stakes (gr. I).

Wavell Avenue is the outstanding runner for her sire, Harlington, a son of Unbridled and Hall of Fame racemare, Serena's Song.

Her dam, Lucas Street is a speedy, multiple stakes placed daughter of Silver Deputy out of the two-year-old stakes winner and graded stakes performer, Ruby Park. The family goes back to My Poly, the dam of the multiple graded stakes winner, Grenzen, and a mare who has founded an internationally significant family from whom descend not only Wavell Avenue, but also Belmont Stakes (gr. I) victor, Go and Go; Refuse to Bend, winner of four group one events, including the classic Irish 2,000 Guineas (gr. I); Tattersalls Gold Cup (gr. I) captor, Casual Conquest; Rich Tapestry, a major winner on three continents, including the Santa Anita Sprint Championship (gr. I); Media Puzzle, successful in the Melbourne Cup (gr. I); and the U.S. grade one winning millionaire Twilight Agenda.

A brilliant Breeders' Cup winner, Wavell Avenue is offered with the option to remain in training and continue to add to her laurels, or to retire and to bring speed of the highest quality to a breeding program.
