OUTSIDER ART

The classy and versatile Outsider Art is a multiple graded stakes performer from a famous family.

In her first four starts, three at two, Outsider Art was a 2½ length winner of a 5 ½ furlong Saratoga maiden special weight; took a Kentucky Downs allowance over six furlongs; and captured third in the Jessamine Stakes (gr. III) at 8½ furlongs, ahead of graded stakes winner Family Tree and stakes winners Inclusive and Come to Mischief; and was third in the one mile Appalachian Stakes (gr. III), beaten only 1¼ lengths by champion Catch a Glimpse, defeating graded stakes winners Auntie Joy and Dothraki Queen. She went to add further black type with thirds in the Lake George Stakes (gr. II), Penn Oaks, Christiana Stakes, and Safely Kept Stakes.

Outsider Art is by the very speedy Carson City son Five Star Day, the sire of 26 stakes winners, including graded stakes winners Eternal Star, Dance Daily, Starforaday, Eve Giselle, Day Pass, and Just Louise.

Outsider Art is out of Pepita, a half-sister to stakes winner Over to You; to stakes placed Kristo; and to Hyperan, the granddam of graded stakes winner Conwy. The second dam, Overnight, a three-quarters sister to three-time graded winner Architect, is out of the notable tap-root mare, Lodge, the ancestress of 31 stakes winners, including European Champion and Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (gr. I) victor, Suave Dancer, and grade one winners Cry and Catch Me, Hartnell, Certigy and Zavite. Lodge's dam is another famous mare, Little Hut, the dam of Champion Sires Habitat and Northfields.
