POLITE SMILE

A young winning half-sister to the brilliant American Anthem, Polite Smile is offered carrying a Bodemeister foal who is three-quarters sister to that horse.

Polite Smile was winner at maiden special weight and allowance level sprinting on the dirt. She is by Distorted Humor, a Leading Sire, who has now developed into one of the world's most sought after broodmare sires, his daughters having already produced the dams of over 120 stakes winners, including Arrogate – officially rated the world's leading racehorse – and grade one winners Practical Joke, Elate, New Money Honey, Constitution, Molly Morgan, Book Review, Moanin, Catch The Cocktail, and Humor Acido.

Polite Smile's half-brother American Anthem is among the leading three-year-old sprinters of 2017, taking the Lazaro Barrera Stakes (gr. III) and the Woody Stephens Stakes (gr. II), which he won by 3¼ lengths. American Anthem also gained grade one black-type on his most recent outing with a third to Practical Joke and Takaful in the H. Allen Jerkens Stakes (gr. I) – formerly the King's Bishop Stakes.

Indy's Windy, the dam of Polite Smile and American Anthem also has a winning daughter by Tiznow, a two-year-old colt by More Than Ready, a yearling filly by Pioneerof the Nile – a three-quarters sister to American Anthem – and is bred to Bodemeister, the sire of American Anthem.

A daughter of A.P. Indy, Indy's Windy is half-sister to Banshee Breeze, Champion Three-Year-Old Filly in the U.S. and top filly on the combined International Classification for three-year-olds and for four-year-olds and upwards. She is also half-sister to stakes winner Unbridled Wind, the granddam of the Indiana Oaks (gr. II) winner Tiz Windy and of 2017 classic placed Patch, and to stakes placed Charm, the dam of stakes winner Whirl.

The granddam, grade two placed two-year-old Banshee Winds, is half-sister to Yard, the dam of Saranac Stakes (gr. II) scorer Lethal Combination, and to One Wild Ride, dam of current multiple stakes winner Theperfectvow.
