QUALITY ROCKS

The versatile Quality Rocks is a stakes winner on the main track at two and a graded stakes winner on the turf at three.

A 4½ lengths winner over 5½ furlongs on her debut, Quality Rocks captured the Arlington Washington Lassie Stakes on her second start, scoring by 3½ lengths from five-time graded winner Sarah's Sis and stakes winners Happy to Go, Puntsville, and Susan's Day.

At three, Quality Rocks stretched out to 8½ furlongs on the turf to take the Florida Oaks (gr. III), defeating grade one winner Include Better, graded stakes winners Consumer Credit and Tiger Ride, and stakes winners Season Ticket and Nicky's Brown Miss.

Quality Rocks also took second in the Sweetest Chant Stakes (gr. III), beaten a length, after out-dueling multiple grade one winner Miss Temple City, graded winner Ol' Fashion Gal, and stakes winners Red Sashay and Nicky's Brown Miss; the Edgewood Stakes (gr. III); the Jessamine Stakes (gr. III); and the Penn Oaks, beaten a ½ length, ahead of graded stakes winner Prize Exhibit and stakes winners Red Sashay and Gypsy Judy.

Quality Rocks is a daughter of the exceptional racehorse Rock Hard Ten, winner of the Malibu Stakes (gr. I) and Santa Anita Handicap (gr. I). A son of Kris S. and a grandson of Roberto, Rock Hard Ten has sired 25 stakes winners, 15 graded. His first runners as a broodmare sire are only just starting to hit the track, and they include this year's graded stakes winning two-year-old Ten City.

Elusive Virgin, the dam of Quality Rocks, is a winning half-sister to the La Jolla Handicap (gr. III) and Will Rogers Handicap (gr. III) victor Purely Cozzene, and to multiple stakes winning and grade placed Erica's Smile, herself granddam of Sheriffa.
