STREET SURRENDER

By classic sire Street Boss, the leading sprinting son of Street Cry, Street Surrender was a stakes winner over grade one competition.

In the Southern Truce Stakes, Street Surrender went wire-to-wire to score by  $1\frac{3}{4}$  lengths from grade one winner Nickname. She was also a maiden special weight and allowance winner – by four lengths – at six furlongs, and won three consecutive races in allowance competition at a mile and  $8\frac{1}{2}$  furlongs, owning the lead at every call in two of them. Street Surrender also earned seconds in two other stakes events, missing by a  $\frac{3}{4}$  lengths, in the Golden Poppy Stakes, while defeating My Heart Goes On, Qiaona, Dreamarcher, and Peach Cove, and taking runner-up spot in the Santa Lucia Stakes behind multiple grade one placed Faithfully, ahead of graded three winner Coppa.

Street Boss, the sire of Street Surrender, is a multiple grade one winning sprinter who is the fastest son of World Champion Racehorse and outstanding sire Street Cry. One of the leading young sires of his generation, Street Boss has sired an exceptional runner in almost every one of his early crops, among them Kentucky Oaks (gr. I) victress Cathryn Sophia; the King's Bishop Stakes (gr. I) winner Capo Bastone; Danza, an Arkansas Derby (gr. I) captor who was a fast closing third in the Kentucky Derby (gr. I); American Oaks (gr. I) victress Decked Out; Australia star The Quarterback; and Hong Kong Horse of the Year Rapper Dragon.

Street Surrender is half-sister to the multiple stakes winning Golden Country, and to graded stakes placed Condor de Oro. Her dam, Sweet Sierra, is a sister to Liberto Gold, winner of the Aqueduct Handicap (gr. III) and five times graded stakes placed, including third in the Metropolitan Handicap (gr. I). She is also a half-sister to Latour, winner of the Davona Dale Stakes (gr. II) and multiple graded placed, including a third in the Ashland Stakes (gr. I).
