SWEET SHIRLEY MAE

Sweet Shirley Mae is a grade one and Breeders' Cup placed two-year-old offered in foal to a three-time Leading Sire.

A wire-to-wire winner over subsequent grade two scorer Bern Identity going five furlongs on her two-year-old debut, Sweet Shirley Mae claimed second in the Spinaway Stakes (gr. I), with grade two winner Teen Pauline back in third. She completed her first season with a third against males in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Sprint. Subsequently, Sweet Shirley Mae demonstrated her versatility three straight wins in allowance company with victories at 7½ furlongs and a mile and 70 yards on turf, and six furlongs on dirt.

Sweet Shirley Mae is by Broken Vow, the sire of more than 66 stakes winners, Broken among them Champion Two-Year-Old Filly Champagne Room, and grade one winners Unbridled Belle, Cotton Blossom, Sassy Image, Rosalind, and Emerging Talent. Broken Vow is also making a very promising start to his career as a broodmare sire, his daughters having already produced Champion Sprinter Runhappy, grade one winners Big World and Hampton Court, and graded scorer Stays in Vegas.

The dam of Sweet Shirley Mae is the stakes winning Rahy mare Joyful Chaos, a half-sister to Calder Derby (gr. III) winner Sal the Barber. The second dam, Alya, is by Deputy Minister out of Colonial Waters, winner of the John A. Morris Handicap (gr. I), Ladies Handicap (gr. II), and Johnnie Walker Black Classic (gr. II), and second in seven graded events, including the Breeders' Cup Distaff Stakes (gr. I). Alya is half-sister to graded stakes winner Panama Canal, and to Our Miss Legs, the dam of stakes winner Success Beauty and granddam of grade one winner Success Brocken.

Sweet Shirley Mae's first foal is a 2017 filly by Scat Daddy's brilliant speedy son No Nay Never. She is offered carrying a foal by three-time Leading Sire Giant's
