DACITA

A Champion at two and three in her native Chile, Dacita has also been one of the finest turf mares in the U.S for three straight seasons.

Racing in Chile – a country that has a long tradition of supplying top-class runners to the U.S. – Dacita was a champion two-year-old, champion three-year-old, and classic winner who captured graded stakes at 6½ furlongs, a mile, 8½ furlongs, and 10 furlongs. She emerged victorious in five of seven graded stakes outings there, including the Clasico Polla de Potrancas (gr. I), Clasico Las Oaks (gr. I), and Clasico Arturo Lyon Pena (gr. I).

Dacita made her U.S. debut – which came in the 2015 Ballston Spa Stakes (gr. II) – a memorable one, closing with a 28.05 last furlong-and-a-half to defeat the formidable Tepin – a two-time Eclipse Award champion – with grade one winner Coffee Clique, and group and graded winners My Miss Sophia, Solid Appeal, and New Providence amongst those behind. In doing so, Dacita achieved a Beyer Speed Figure of 103.

Dacita continued to build her reputation in 2016. The New York Handicap (gr. II) saw Dacita defeat grade one winners Sea Calisi and Photo Call and graded winner Guapaza. At Saratoga, Dacita produced another wicked kick to annex the $500,000 Diana Stakes (gr. I), where a final furlong in 11.23 seconds saw her account for the exceptional grade one winner Miss Temple City, and graded scorers Rainha Da Bateria, Strike Charmer, Onus, Mrs McDougal, Isabella Sings, Sandiva, and Wekeela, while earning a 101 Beyer Speed Figure. In addition to these victories, Dacita was second, beaten just a nose, in the Canadian Stakes (gr. II) – again running a 101 Beyer Speed Figure – and by a neck in the Very One Stakes (gr. III).

This term, Dacita missed by just a head to Hawksmoor in the Beaugay Handicap (gr. III) on her seasonal debut, but was back on top again in her most recent outing, the Beverly D. Stakes (gr. I), which saw her defeat Dona Bruja, her old adversaries Hawksmoor and Rainha Da Bateria, other graded winners Grand Jete, Zipessa, and Prado's Sweet Ride, and classic placed group winner Rain Goddess, while running a 102 Beyer Speedfigure

Dacita is the highest earning daughter of the wonderful sire Scat Daddy. The Leading Freshman Sire of his crop, Scat Daddy rapidly established himself as an extremely important international sire. To date he is responsible for 85 stakes winners, and 52 graded stakes winners, among them other U.S. grade one winners Lady of Shamrock, Celestine, Harmonize, and Nickname, and in Europe brilliant group one winning speedsters No Nay Never, Caravaggio, and Lady Aurelia, and the 2017 juvenile group one scorer Sioux Nation.

Out of the Gone West granddaughter Daja, a Broodmare of the Year, Dacita is a full sister to graded winner Dosificado and to classic placed Dalala, and half-sister to Champion Lady Estefania and classic placed Dacimo.
