ENSTONE

A talented daughter of Tiznow, out of a Storm Cat mare from a tremendous family, Enstone was a graded stakes winner on her most recent start.

Already a multiple stakes winner in 2017, on her latest outing Enstone captured her third black-type victory of the year when taking the Ontario Colleen Stakes (gr. III), defeating grade one winner Yellow Agate, graded stakes winner Grizzel, and stakes winners Super Marina and R Naja. The Ontario Colleen is on the turf, but Enstone had earlier taken the Fury Stakes and Bison City Stakes, both on Woodbine's main track. The Fury Stakes was particularly notable, as Enstone scored by 2¾ lengths from stakes winners Financial Recovery, Ghostly Presence, Ellan Vannin, and Cindervella.

In addition to her three stakes wins this year at three, Enstone also took second in the Selene Stakes (gr. III) and the Wonder Where Stakes, beaten just half a length. In addition, Enstone had flashed her potential on her last two starts at two, breaking her maiden by 7¼ lengths, and missing by just half a length in the Princess Elizabeth Stakes, one of Canada's most important contests for juvenile fillies.

Enstone is by Horse of the Year, Champion Three-Year-Old, and Champion Older Horse, Tiznow, sire of Champion Two-Year-Old Filly Folklore; Dubai World Cup (gr. I) hero Well Armed; Champion Canadian Older Mare Bear Now; Tourist, successful in the Breeders' Cup Mile (gr. I); Travers Stakes (gr. I) and Santa Anita Derby (gr. I) captor Colonel John; Da' Tara, who took the Belmont Stakes (gr. I); and other graded one winners Tizway, Morning Line, Tiz Miz Sue, Bullsbay, Tough Tiz's Sis, Strong Mandate, and My Sweet Addiction. In 2017, Tiznow has been represented by not only Enstone, but also the Hopeful Stakes (gr. I) winner Sporting Chance, and multiple graded stakes winning millionaire Irap. Tiznow is also beginning to emerge as a broodmare sire, his daughters being represented by 2017 grade one winners It Tiz Well and American Patriot, grade one winners Noble Bird and Personal Diary, and graded stakes winners Renee's Titan, Tiz Midnight, Tivoli Park, Fashion Alert, Calamity Kate, and Went The Day Well.

La Suena, the dam of Enstone, is dam of two winners with her first two starters. She also has an unraced Unbridled's Song filly whose first foal, a two-year-old, won by three lengths at Churchill Downs on his debut in September 2017. La Suena is also dam of a two-year-old colt by Tiznow, a yearling filly by Pioneerof the Nile –the same cross of Pioneerof the Nile with a Storm Cat line mare as American Pharoah and Classic Empire – and is bred to Quality Road, another excellent cross for Storm Cat line mares.

La Suena is a three-quarters sister to Forest Secrets, whose four graded victories included the Acorn Stakes (gr. I); to Secret Wildcat, the dam of graded stakes winning and grade one placed Big Wildcat; and to Silverbulletway, the dam of graded stakes winner Governor Charlie and stakes winner Crisis of Spirit. La Suena is also half-sister to graded scorer Rumor Has It. La Suena's dam, Garden Secrets, is out of graded stakes winner Rokeby Rose, and is half-sister to Silverbulletday, a Hall of Fame racemare whose triumphs included the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies (gr. I), Kentucky Oaks (gr. I), and Alabama Stakes (gr. I). Garden Secrets is half-sister to the dam of Malibu Stakes (gr. I) and Strub Stakes (gr. II) winner Shakin It Up.

A progressive filly who has run new top Beyer Speed figures in her last two starts, Enstone is a stakes winner on turf and the main track, and is stakes winner at seven furlongs, a mile, and 8½ furlongs, and was beaten just half a length in a stakes at a mile and a quarter. She is by a Champion racehorse and major sire, who is emerging as an important broodmare sire, and from a power-packed family.
