GOLDEN MISCHIEF

A talented sprinter, multiple stakes winner Golden Mischief is a filly in form, recording a career-high Beyer in her most recent start, while taking a six furlong stakes in 1:08.53. She is by one of the nation's fastest rising sires, from a prolific stakes producing family.

The speedy Golden Mischief gained her first three wins in succession, taking a maiden special weight by eight lengths; scoring by 5¾ lengths in allowance company at Churchill Downs; then capturing the listed My Trusty Cat Stakes. She completed her two-year-old season with a 2¼ lengths victory in the Letellier Memorial Stakes.

Golden Mischief has continued her good work at three. In the spring she captured the $150,000 Purple Marlin Stakes, in the process defeating grade two winner Vertical Oak and stakes winners Chanel's Legacy, Hotshot Anna, Whistle Stop, and Country Candy. On her most recent start on September 24, Golden Mischief ran a career high Beyer Speed Figure while defeating stakes winners Wheatfield, Donita's Ruler, and Euro K Shotgun to win the Flashy Lady Stakes in 1:08.53

In addition to winning six races – four black-type – at six different tracks, Golden Mischief has also taken second in the Take Charge Brandi Stakes and Jersey Girl Stakes, in which she defeated grade one winner Pretty City Dancer, graded winner Vertical Oak, and stakes winners Yorkiepoop Princess and Cajun Delta Dawn. Trying graded stakes company, she was beaten just a neck for third in the Prioress Stakes (gr. II).

Golden Mischief is by Into Mischief, one of the hottest young sires in the U.S., who was announced as booked full for 2018 at a fee of $100,000 on September 1, 2017. Into Mischief is already sire of 26 stakes winners, ten graded, including the multiple grade one winners Goldcents and Practical Joke – one of ten stakes winners from his current three-year-old crop – and graded winners Vyjack, Vicar's In Trouble,
