HONORIA

It's very rare that the opportunity to buy a young stakes winning and stakes producing daughter of the mighty Sadler's Wells occurs. That opportunity, however, is found here in the shape of Honoria, who is not only a stakes winner in her own right, but also dam of a stakes winning and multiple graded placed horse with her first foal.

A classic winning champion on the racecourse, Sadler's Wells is regarded as a strong candidate to be considered as the greatest stallion of all time. He was Champion Sire of Great Britain and Ireland for 14 years, 13 consecutively. Remarkably, he was responsible for nearly 300 stakes winners, among them Galileo, Montjeu, Salsabil, In the Wings, High Chaparral, Yeats, Intrepidity, Alexandrova, and Carnegie. He has been equally exceptional as a broodmare sire, his daughters including the dams of Workforce, Taghrooda, Conduit, Sakhee, Flintshire, Immortal Verse, The Fugue, Peeping Fawn, Virginia Waters, El Condor Pasa, Reliable Man, Brave Anne, Hit it a Bomb, and Henrythenavigator.

Honoria's dam, Tedarshana, is a grade two placed runner, who also produced Honoria's three-quarters sister, Seanachai, the dam of stakes winners Final Copy and Original Script.

Tedarshana is half-sister to stakes winning and graded stakes placed The Key Rainbow, to Only Vanda, the dam of stakes winner Warpath and granddam of current graded stakes winner Limestone, and to Tekindia, the dam of the Cathay Pacific Jockey Club Mile (gr. II) captor Destined For Glory.

Honoria's granddam, Te Kani, is a Northern Dancer mare who is half-sister to one brilliant dirt miler, Ogygian, and half-sister to the dam of another, the Metropolitan Handicap (gr. I) scorer Honour and Glory. Te Kani is a granddaughter of Grand Splendor, the granddam of the breed-shaping stallion Fappiano, and also ancestress of Kentucky Oaks (gr. I) victress Keeper Hill; Commendable, successful in the Belmont Stakes (gr. I); and other grade one winners Clabber Girl and Torrential.

Honorina gained her own black-type when defeating colts to take the Oyster Stakes, and also took third in the Lenebane Stakes.

Honorina's first foal is Maximova, who not only won the Bit of Whimsy Stakes, but also showed top-class form when second to Goldy Espony in the La Prevoyante Handicap (gr. III) and second to Rosalind in the Sheepshead Bay Stakes (gr. II). Her second foal is Energy Town, a two-time winner in 2017, and she also has young daughters of Lemon Drop Kid, Distorted Humor and Street Cry

Honorina is offered in foal to Hard Spun, a son of Danzig, offering the same Danzig/Sadler's Wells crossed that produced Maximova. Already the sire of nine group or grade one winners, Hard Spun is also responsible for graded stakes winner Khusoosy out of a Sadler's Wells line mare.
