CHALON

The only horse to score a victory over the phenomenal Unique Bella, Chalon is a lightly-raced and in-form stakes winner who has obvious upside as a runner and serious future potential as a broodmare.

On her racecourse debut, Chalon made every yard of the running to take a Santa Anita maiden special weight by 2¼ lengths over Unique Bella, who has subsequently gone five-for-five, including four straight graded victories. The time for the five furlongs was only 0.92 outside the track record.

After again making all to claim a win in allowance company, Chalon came east to earn her first stakes triumph, a feat she achieved when storming home 6½ lengths clear in the listed Jersey Girl Stakes at Belmont Park, those behind including grade one winner Pretty City Dancer, grade two winner Vertical Oak, and stakes winners Golden Mischief, Cajun Delta Dawn, and Yorkiepoo Princess.

Chalon produced another outstanding performance on her most recent outing. Facing older fillies and mares for the first time in her career, Chalon chased home the formidable Finley'sluckycharm – a leading contender for the Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint (gr. I) – in the Thoroughbred Club of America Stakes (gr. II), in the process defeating graded stakes winners Vertical Oak, I'm a Looker, and Bendable, and stakes winner Grace's Treasure. This fine effort places Chalon very near the top of the current crop of three-year-old filly sprinters.

Chalon is by the A.P. Indy grandson Dialed In. The Leading Freshman Sire of 2016, Dialed In was represented by nine first crop stakes horses, including six stakes winners, headed by Chalon and Gunnevera, a three-time graded winner with earnings of over $1,500,000 who has been among the leaders of his crop at two and three. Dialed In has continued to demonstrate his potential with his second crop which includes undefeated graded winner The Tabulator.

Chalon's dam, Fall Fantasy, is a half-sister to the stakes winning and graded stakes placed Boston Park. The granddam, Maple Creek, a two-year-old winning daughter of Forty Niner, is half-sister to Patches, heroine of the Hollywood Oaks (gr. I); to Red Attack, a multiple graded stakes winner and three-times grade one placed; to stakes winner Exit Five B; to stakes winner Hickman Creek; and to Beware, the dam of La Spia, winner of the Del Mar Debutante Stakes (gr. II) and runner-up in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies (gr. I).

Maple Creek is out of Miss Betty, a Buckpasser mare who is very closely related to English classic winner Quick As Lightning. Miss Betty is also a great-granddaughter of Misty Morn, Champion Three-Year-Old Filly and Champion Older Mare, and dam of Champion Two-Year-Old Colts Bold Lad and Successor. Misty Morn's dam, the legendary tap-root mare Grey Flight, is also dam of twice Leading Sire What a Pleasure.
