KITTEN'S ROAR

Grade one placed and a graded stakes winner in her last two starts, Kitten's Roar has earned over $830,000. She's by champion racehorse and sire Kitten's Joy out of a young half-sister to a graded stakes winner and grade one performer.

Kitten's Roar gained her first black-type win on her 2017 debut, defeating graded stakes winners Prado's Sweet Ride, Cambodia, and Cash Control to capture the Marie G. Krantz Memorial Stakes at Fair Grounds. She has been in outstanding form this fall, with exceptional performances in each of her last three starts. In September, Kitten's Roar captured the Ramsey Farm Stakes at Kentucky Downs by 2¼ lengths defeating graded stakes winners Tricky Escape, Queen Blossom and Quiet Business, and stakes winners Daring Duchess, Sweet Tapper and La Piba. One month later, Kitten's Roar claimed a fine second in the E.P. Taylor Stakes (gr. I), defeating group one winner Nezwaah, group winners Quidura and Rain Goddess, and graded stakes winners Fourstar Crook and Rainha Da Bateria. Most recently, Kitten's Roar decisively defeated a contentious field for the Goldikova Stakes (gr. II), scoring by 2¼ lengths from group and graded winners On Leave, Aljazzi, Mrs McDougal, Hillhouse High and Goldy Espony, and stakes winners Thundering Sky, Majestic Heat and Madame Stripes.

Among Kitten's Roar's other efforts are a second in the Cardinal Handicap (gr. III), ahead of graded winners Salama and Real Smart, and stakes winners The Tea Cups and Annulment; the Blushing K. D. Stakes, beaten just a head by Cash Control, beating graded stakes winners Prado's Sweet Ride and Uchenna and stakes winners Secret Someone, Freudie Anne and Selenite; and the Daisy Devine Stakes, beaten just a half-length, beating graded stakes winners Cambodia and Prado's Sweet Ride. She also took third in the New York Stakes (gr. II), ahead of the exceptional grade one winner Dacita, grade one winner Sea Calisi, and graded winners Suffused and Summersault. Kitten's Roar also placed in the Little Silver Handicap, and was also beaten less than two lengths in the Jenny Wiley Stakes (gr. I), behind Dickinson, Lady
