LEXINGTON STREET

An impressive two-year-old stakes winner, Lexington Street is by the highly-successful Street Sense, out of a Storm Cat sister to a two-year-old standout.

Lexington Street put together a three race winning streak at two. Two and a half lengths clear in a maiden special weight at Laurel on her second start, Lexington Street returned to take the Maryland Million Lassie Stakes by 5¾ lengths. Following back-to-back scores at six furlongs, Lexington Street proved that she could carry her speed, completing the hat-trick with a one mile allowance score. A highly successful juvenile season was completed with a second in the Maryland Juvenile Filly Championship.

Lexington Street is a daughter of Champion Street Sense, the first horse to capture the Breeders' Cup Juvenile (gr. I) and the Kentucky Derby (gr. I). Street Sense is sire of 49 stakes winners, among them the grade one winners Sweet Reason, Hallowed Crown, Wedding Toast, Aubby K, Politeness, Callback, Sense of Occasion, and Street Fancy. II).

Lexington Street has two multiple winner producing half-sisters, and she also has two young winning three-quarters sisters by Street Cry, and a winning half-sister by Elusive Quality. Her dam has a two-year-old colt by Curlin, and a weanling colt by Palace Malice, so there is considerable potential upside here.

Lexington Girl, the dam of Lexington Street, is a two-year-old winning sister to the precocious Magicalmysterycat, one of the fastest juvenile fillies of her crop, and winner of Cinderella Stakes, Valley Stream Stakes, Schuylerville Stakes (gr. II), and Landaluce Stakes (gr. II). Lexington Girl is also a sister to Burmilla, winner of the
