MAGGIES APPLAUSE

A half-sister to a grade one winning millionaire, Maggies Applause is offered carrying a Hard Spun colt who is a three-quarters brother or sister to a currently active stakes winner.

Maggies Applause is a winning daughter of the A.P. Indy stallion Congrats. He is an exceptional sire of fillies, and his daughters include such as the multiple grade one winning Turbulent Descent; grade one winners Haveyougoneaway, Emma's Encore, and Wickedly Perfect; and graded scorers Forever Darling, Venus Valentine, Polar River, Overture, and Jacaranda. With his first few runners a broodmare sire, Congrats is already represented by Hartley, successful in the Nakayama Hopeful Stakes (gr. III), Spanish Steps, a group winner in Ireland, and stakes winner Derek Adrian.

Maggies Applause is half-sister to the top-class and remarkably versatile performer, Comma to the Top. Successful in nine stakes events, five graded, Comma to the Top won black-type events on dirt, turf, and all-weather surfaces. He gained a grade one triumph in the CashCall Futurity (gr. I) at two, and among his other successes were the Tom Fool Handicap (gr. III), Daytona Stakes (gr. III), Los Angeles Handicap (gr. III), and Generous Stakes (gr. I). His graded stakes placings include seconds in the Santa Anita Derby (gr. I), beaten just a head, and the Triple Bend Handicap (gr. I).

Maggies Applause is also half-sister to Vending Machine, a three-year-old of 2017, who won the Eddie Logan Stakes, and took second in the Cecil B. Demille Stakes (gr. III). Her dam, Maggies Storm, also has a two-year-old filly by Street Cry, a yearling colt by Cairo Prince, and is bred to Frosted.

Maggies Storm is half-sister to stakes winner Yes He's A Pistol, and is out of the Virginia Handicap (gr. III) victress Maggies Pistol. In turn, Maggies Pistol is out of Miss Magistrate, a half-sister to Good Potential, winner of the Sorority Stakes (gr. III), and grade one placed, and herself third dam of the Frizette Stakes (gr. I) winner
