

THE West Virginia Bred ADVANTAGE

Horses bred in West Virginia benefit from frequent restricted races, favorable race conditions, and year-round earning opportunities.

- Up to three West Virginia restricted races may be offered on a single race card.
- West Virginia-breds qualify under both West Virginia and open conditions, providing additional opportunities to enter and win.
- Approximately 165 racing days are offered annually.
- Eligible West Virginia-breds participate in the West Virginia Development Fund.
- Accredited West Virginia-breds may compete in the state's restricted stakes program and the West Virginia Breeders Classics.

Learn more at WVtba.com